The manager of the Laurel Glen Line and Twine mill, Frank Powell, and Miss Taylor, motored to Williamsville to spend the holiday with relatives.

Rev. John H. Broderick, rector of St. Patrick's church, left Sunday afternoon for Waterbury, to attend the funeral of Rev. Hugh Treanor today (Monday).

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton N. Draper and daughter have returned to Schenectady after a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. George S. Draper of River avenue.

Henry S. Gay.

The death of Henry S. Gay occurred at his home at No. 15 Mountain street, Saturday afternoon after an illness of about three weeks. He was born in New Jersey seventy-seven years ago and had been a resident of Norwich for over fifty years. At the outbreak of the Civil war he was living at Chelmsford, Mass., and enlisted at Boston when the call came for five hundred men to assist the army surgeons. He served two separate enlistments but was discharged before the end of the war on account of ill health.

His last pastorate lasted seven years. His sincere devotion to the people of Waterbury brought him back after his pastorate at Norwich. He was always active, and never neglected his duties as a pastor. He was engaged in railway work in the vicinity of Boston, but came here in 1847 and was engaged in the trucking business. Leaving this he accepted a position with the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, which he held for twenty-eight years, acting as baggage master at the old Ferry street station for twenty years. Following this he was in the express business for twelve years. He was severely injured several years ago when he fell on the ice and has been living in retirement ever since.

He was married to Miss Mary E. Foster of Leyden in this city by Rev. Mr. Graves. They celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at the Buckingham Memorial on Jan. 8, 1918.

Mr. Gay became a member of Uncas Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., in 1882, and a member of the Veteran Odd Fellows' association and is the oldest member of the order in eastern Connecticut. He joined the central Baptist church in January, 1897, and has also been a member of Sedwick Post, No. 1, G. A. R. for over forty years.

Mrs. David Cushman.

The death of Mrs. David Cushman occurred at the home of her niece, Mrs. Edwin Broderick, of 494 Main street, Sunday afternoon after a brief illness. She was born in Preston 57 years ago and spent all of her life in Norwich. She was married fifty-one years. Mrs. Cushman is survived by three children, Mrs. Grace Stoddard, Mrs. Wealthy Cushman and David Cushman, all of Norwich, a niece, Mrs. Edwin Broderick, and two grand-children, Edward and Mildred Broderick.

Major Frank Wells.

News has been received of the sudden death of Major Frank Wells of Brewster, N. Y., on Dec. 17, of heart failure. Major Wells was 78 years of age and had been in the army since 1862. He was mustered into service as first lieutenant, Company I, 13th Regiment of Connecticut Volunteers on October 19, 1862, and promoted to captain March 21, 1863, and to major on March 13, 1865. He was discharged April 25, 1866.

He is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter.

Major Wells was last of the commissioned officers of his regiment who left the state with a commission.

Mrs. Edward H. Linnell.

The death of Mrs. Edward H. Linnell occurred at her home on Broadway Sunday afternoon after an illness of four years. She was born in New York city in 1854, the daughter of Addison and Eliza Middleton Smith. In 1883 she was married to Henry H. Linnell, one son, Arthur Linnell, of New York, was born in 1889. In 1907 she was married to Dr. Edward H. Linnell, the common law husband, who died in New York city by the late Rev. Dr. Llewellyn Pratt, then pastor of the Broadway Congregational church. Mrs. Linnell was a member of the church and of the Wednesday club. She is survived by her husband, a son, Arthur Linnell of New York city and two brothers, H. Ives Smith and Addison Smith, both of New York city and several nephews and nieces.

Hard Cider or Wood Alcohol?

The esteemed Hartford Courant was kind enough to lay a typographical error on the part of The Bulletin in the hard cider of this vicinity. Saturday morning the esteemed Courant put in the headline with the arrest of a Chinaman, Yee Wing Bo, who was captured a Sunday raid by the Hartford police over a story of the past activities of Jacob Brownwine who was arrested in connection with the selling of wood alcohol as dog food. To hear from the esteemed Courant as to whether they prefer imported hard cider from this vicinity to Hartford wood alcohol.

Fitzgerald Boy Improving.

At the Backus hospital Sunday night, James Fitzgerald, who was brought by an auto on Chelsea parade Thursday was reported as doing well. He passed a very comfortable night Saturday and continued to improve on Sunday.

GARMENT WORKERS' STRIKE IS SETTLED

The strike of the local garment workers which has been in progress for a week past was settled on Saturday when it was announced that all the local shops have granted an increase of three dollars a week to the men employees and two dollars a week to the women employees.

About a week ago the Amalgamated Clothing Workers employed in several of the garment plant of the city served notice on their employers that they would declare a strike unless their demands were met. The demands were an increase of $5 weekly to the men and $3 weekly to the women. The employers refused.
